About

You will find me 99% of the time in sun glasses. The other 99% of the time with NO bangs and my hair up, running around at full speed.

After 20 years in the wedding industry 2027 brings fresh beginnings. It is the first time that I will be taking 2 weekends per month to myself; my family, my health and my hobbies since the start of my career.

What this means for my couples: This means I will be focusing on full service weddings with decor and planning. As well as draping which is one of my true loves, especially now that we are seeing more dramatic draping and ceiling draping.

What my years of expertise offers is a wealth of knowledge in all aspects of the wedding day as well as a list of top venues and vendors that I love to work with and believe couples will as well. Decor and flower knowledge, design, colours, textures all of the pretty things but also things I am always thinking about; flow of the guests, timeline through out the day and the overall experience.

My full planning experience comes from many private property weddings, which are the most challenging and have a long list of issues and moving parts.

I like a good old fashion phone call. I think this is very important for us to get a feel for each other and for me to understand your true likes and dislikes.

Never hesitate to reach out because you never know what I have availability for and what I am interested in. If I am not available I will be happy to provide an appropriate referral.

Two Decades of Experience. A Lifetime of Memories.

With 20 years in the wedding industry, I've learned that creating an unforgettable wedding is about so much more than pretty details. It's about understanding people, seeing possibilities, knowing what works, and bringing all the pieces together.

I've had the opportunity to work in countless venues, collaborate with talented industry professionals, and bring so many different wedding visions to life. That experience has shaped the way I approach every celebration.

I bring creativity, knowledge, trusted relationships, and a genuine passion for what I do to every wedding. My goal is always to make the process enjoyable, take the stress out of the details, and create something that feels truly personal.

Because experience matters, but making each couple feel like their wedding is the most important one is what matters most.

Draping

Draping is a real art! It creates the most drama and gives you some of the biggest impact for your money.

Each venue has different draping options and requirements as well as what your preference is as a client. Let's hide that ugly wall!

Draping is available with so many options; size, colour, texture and style. All of these details reflect the price.

One of the first questions I ask my clients is if they want a backdrop because in reality the couple / head table or sweetheart table is the focal point of the wedding. It creates the biggest statement when guests walk in the room. I believe it is one of the main decor pieces every wedding should have.

Secondly we discuss the head table / sweetheart table and what you want that to look like, as it is also a focal point and should be dramatic and a reflection of the couple.

Minimum Order - $1000.00

You can add another package onto draping to come to the total - please see our full service option or inquire.

On your wedding day, I will be there from start to finish, overseeing every moving piece behind the scenes so you, your family, and your wedding party can be fully present and simply enjoy the day. Flowers

Bridal Flowers / Centrepieces / Ceremony

All Flower Requirements

My rule of thumb for the flowers is - find something that you LOVE for your bouquets or boutonniere's and base the rest of the flowers off of this.

Put high end / costly flowers as the focal point pieces and then use some slightly more cost effective flowers for the other pieces. This helps to keep on budget. Adding pops of the glamorous flowers, allows them to shine!

Delivery locations are included and ceremony flips. I am a firm believer in reusing any pieces possible, this helps to insure you get all of the pieces that you want. For all pieces to look great when they are moved this may also require re design which is included.

Flowers are really based on budget and requirements.

Starting at $4000.00

You can add another package onto draping to come to the total - please see our full service option or inquire.

Specialized Guidance Call - available all of Canada

This is not a consultation for one of my services - this is a service unto itself. This service is available anywhere in Canada but I am most familiar with Niagara / Hamilton / Burlington / Cambridge venues. Although with 20 years of experience I can help in so many ways no matter what venue or province you are in. A website and floor plan are always helpful.

Are you confused???

Do you have a lot of questions? Do you have no idea where to start…..

Do you have a Pinterest Board but do not know what you ask vendors or how to make that come to life?

Do you feel like you have too many vendors selling you instead of really caring about what you want and need for your wedding?

This is a one time phone call to help get you on track, to give you suggestions, to help with questions. Most of all after all of these years couples have told me a good chat relieves a lot of stress and gets them on track, with professional guidance.

WHAT SERVICES ARE INCLUDED:

2 - Hour - virtual or phone consultation
A finalizing email with all of our conversation details as well as some recommendations.
1 - .pdf image showing the colour palette and some of the flowers or decor we discuss for your reference and to send to your vendors
A custom list of things that are very important that you need to be working on, that are often left until the last minute.

$250.00

You can book this directly - under the purchase section of the website.

Ceiling

Draping / Lights / Greenery

Some venues have the perfect ceiling to work with and some venues don't have ceiling options.

I never just throw a ceiling up and wing it, there are multiple venue visits and sometimes requires a full custom fit. Of course their are venues that already have a ceiling plan and I am very familiar with it.

Draping is just one option, usually there is some way to add greenery or florals for a statement.

And even some sort of lighting might be an option.

Starting at $1200.00

You can add another package onto draping to come to the total - please see our full service option or inquire.

Full Service Weddings

Design / Decor / Florals / Event Management or a Mix there of - meaning you are my sole wedding that day and have my undivided attention.

This is what 70% of my clients end up booking.

This is the best way to make your wedding cohesive and only have to deal with one vendor - Me

This is how many of my couples have used my services in the past. It's convenient, I already know all of the details about your wedding and we already have a relationship established.

This usually always ends up including the design service, decor and flowers. Some couples will add one of the planning options if needed.

This package includes picking linens, dish ware, setup, cleanup and return along with many other details.

Starting at: $7500.00

Things that set me apart:

20 years of experience in the industry!!!

I have two decades of knowledge and experience and that is a benefit to you.

I have seen and experienced soooo many things, the good, the great, the bad and the ugly. I know what works and what doesn't and what to anticipate, what makes or breaks and event.

I always show you and your bridesmaids how to hold your bouquets, walk down the aisle, placement of your bouquet when it is not being used and the list goes on.

If I am on site I will put all of the boutonniere's on, give out corsages with explanations of what not to do. The pins on the boutonniere's should not be showing in anyway, this is a huge pet peeve.

If you book a full service planning package, when I say I am the last to leave - I am the last to leave!!

I walk into an empty space and can see how it will work, I have an eye for design and what can be imagined I can bring to life.

I have so many vendor connections and so many of them are incredible, I have all of the right people for you.

There is so much happening behind the scenes on a wedding day. Experience gives me the ability to think quickly, solve problems quietly and keep everything moving without adding stress to the couple.

Large Installations

We offer large scale focal pieces, something extraordinary for your special day!

The piece behind the head table in this photo is a custom designed piece. You could also make a statement piece at the venue entrance. Custom pieces like this require a lot of planning, creating custom structures and manually putting each stem in place. We love the creative aspect of that. This is how you showcase something truly unforgettable. If you have an idea we want to try to make it come to life!

Candles

We offer cylinder vase candles with candle sand or floating candles.

I prefer candle sand as it burns for hours and hours so your candles will never go out. I also think it looks really glamorous. I also make sure there is a nice size variance as the different sizes is what creates the finished look. We also have extra large vases for welcome signs and any ground displays.

Pricing ranges from - $8.00 - $10.00 per candle, varying on size of the vase and also the size of the clients order.

Bridal Showers / Past Clients / Intimate Weddings

Not sure where you fit in my pricing options…..

I never hurts to ask if I am available as I may take on something smaller depending on my schedule.

During slower months; January - May my schedule is much more flexible. September is now the busiest wedding month of the entire year.

Don't hesitate to reach out, I truly want to help!!!

I would love to be able to accommodate everyone but unfortunately I can no longer do this. I will however recommend someone that can provide what you are looking for if I am not available.
